Message has been received from Nenni, Secretary of the Socialist Party in Rome. Six-point agreement has been reached by the 5 anti-Fascist parties. These are:

1. No collaboration with the Badoglio Government.
2. Committee of National Liberation is ready to constitute a government of public security for the struggle against the Germans and Fascists.
3. This provisional government will assume all state powers during the period necessary to drive the Germans out of Italy and until elections can be held.
4. This government will consider itself responsible to the Italian nation only.
5. As soon as the national territory is liberated the people will decide on the constitutional form of the state.
6. Instead of taking an oath to the king the government will publish a declaration stating it will take no stand on the question as between the king and the republic in order to not to prejudice the free choice of the Italian people.
