

May 28, 1944.

The following message has been received from Harpers.

"The scenario has been received and was forwarded immediately to 3 movie producers who were interested. We will advise you of their reaction. We are very pleased at the prospect of receiving a novel on the same theme. We understand that there is a possibility of receiving assistance from your associates in the transmittal of the manuscript. We offer the same contract terms as for "The Seed Beneath the Snow". We are willing to advance 1000 dollars. Please cable us your acceptance and instructions regarding the transmittal of funds."

via 493 May 30